Farewell . . .

On January 1, 1912, Miss Jessie Roberts started on her teaching career at South Park School. Later she taught at Margaret Jenkins and was vice-principal of Girls' Central School. After obtaining her B.A. at the Universities of Washington and British Columbia she came to Victoria High in September, 1934. Here she taught English for 23 years and also occupied the position of girls' counsellor. Miss Roberts has always had the best interest of every student at heart and given unstintingly of her time. We shall miss her presence at Victoria High School very much and we wish her well in her retirement

Also we are sorry to lose Mrs. Buchan and Mrs. Schulz, our two girls' P.E. teachers who have become an integral part of the school. Both have contributed much of their time and energy to the sponsoring of many activities.

Valedictory . . .

Victoria High School, we are proud to be your graduates of 1957! There will be other years, other students, and other graduations, but there will never be another Class of '57.

For three years we have journeyed down these proud halls, and it is with an indefinable feeling that we pause and recall our high school days. We will long remember our joyful times together, our friends, and our teams, but a shadow of sadness faintly clouds our happy memories, for soon we shall bid farewell to those who have been our constant companions for these years.

Many times we have neglected to express our gratitude to our teachers and parents, who faithfully have reassured and steadied our faltering footsteps. They have unselfishly given us of their substance, time, understanding, and wisdom, that we might enter life prepared and strong and independent. Today, with deep gratitude we thank you—our teachers and our parents.

Thus we stand on the threshold of our future and we shall go forth, as we are, with hope and abiding faith, to our destiny on the road of life. What success we shall have, what victories we may win, the future alone can tell, but we do know that we are better prepared from being students of Victoria High School.

The Presumptive Paladin

Ah, yes, the day was perfect for a joust.
The rodents from my armour I did oust,
Proceeding then to don my coat of mail;
(I had no helmet so I used a pail.)
Atop a hill, I spied an errant knight;
Chivalrously I asked him for a fight.
" Ha, ha! " saidst he, " Thou art an oaf, an ape!
I'll rend thee from thy spurs up to thy cape!"
With rips and cuts his boasts did I disperse.
That eve, placed was my victim in a hearse.
That eve, the rodents re-entered my mail.
That eve, I used my pail for drinking ale.
I went to bed feeling justly robust.
My armour suit regained its coat of dust.

The Bugle Note

Round the curdled crescent in the calling of the morn,
Crying up the demons that are hounding of the horn;
Begging down the beggars that have staggered with their ships,
Hailing round the darkness that is screaming with its whips.
Falling in the darkness that is wanting of the day,
Wheeling for a giant who is laughing in his play;
Dropping through the embers of the smoke-turned, twisting path,
Swooping through the timbers that have felt an ogre's wrath;
Shuddering in terror that is quivering with its doom,
Echoed in the smoky vaults within the monster's tomb
That weaved his tale in broken threads upon the great one's loom—
And come, oh breathless whispers, let us softly leave the room.

GRADE ELEVEN ...

Division 9. Div. Nine's army, led by Miss Sargent, has proved to be an active squad. General Howard Lim and his aide de camp, Alayne Waller, have handled the business, while Mike Rigby and Marilyn Young handled the monkey shines.

Bandsmen Allcock, Coldwells, and Poole supplied squeeks and squacks, while Marion Elliott and Wendy Love earned laughs for the Calamity Players.

In the sports field Pat Horne and Charney Manhas were our feminine athletes, while Bob Jones was our tall junior basketball player. Murray Holmes was our vicious ping-pong player, and Ed Pomeroy our lone cross-country runner.

Scholastically speaking this Division had the majority of the grade eleven Honour Students. Looks are in abundance around this class, especially with Suzanne Anderson and Barbara Kueng.

Division 10. At the reins of the Div. 10 hay wagon is our registration teacher, Mr. Chatfield. Don Kirkby, our class president, assists him during the year. Playing noughts and crosses on the side are our two artists, Harold Ridgway and Jack Horn, while running along beside the wagon is our cross-country runner, Jim Marshall.

Keeping time to the horses' steps are the many music minded of Div. 10—Barry Saunders, Paul Williamson, Wally Brown, Jim Whittaker and Terry Toone. Humming along with the music are the many girls' choir members and our boys' glee club representative, Robert Turner. Tom Hosie, calamity player, can usually be seen working up a storm at the back of the wagon as it rolls along through the year.

Lastly, to make the picture complete, we see our better-late-than-never man, Larry Hall, running along behind.

Division 11. In Div. 11's war canoe, Mr. Kay, with his trusty spear in one hand and handy set of compasses in the other, takes his place at the prow. Heir, apparently, to Mr. Kay's envious position in the tribe, is class president Dave Skillings. Figuring in our division's administration are secretary, hard-working Joane Mummery, and able vice-president, Lonnie Restell. Busily employing herself in the stern of our swift-moving vessel is our great wizard of signed numbers, Margaret Salmond, consulting with Avis and Pat to see where (and if) our canoe will land next September. Maker-of-beautiful-Sun-pictures, Linda Martin, is at it again scribbling on the side of our birch-bark craft while Dave Hopwood and Ed Mitchuck play mumbly-peg in the stern with Marilyn Inglis officiating. Irrepressibles King Lee, Walter Creed, and Linda Chan exchange "funnies." Generally considered to lead our sportsminded group are Linda Martin and Dave Skillings prancing in the bow. Stalwarts such as Judy Bone, Anne Howe, Margaret Wollos, and Margaret Smith row on in search of bigger and better conquests for our eager group of warriors.

Division 12. Headed by Mr. Mayne and his Monday morning jokes, Div. 12 is made up mostly of last year's Div. 25 with five girls, Jacquee, Jean, Baldew, Gudy and Jacquoline adding the feminine touch. Ken and Gudy keep order while Lynn, Jake, Robbie, and Don are the band supporters. Phil, Don and Scottie are our soccer stars; Frank, our TV personality; Jacquee our opera singer; and Bob, our "four-day-a-week" man. Al is the guy with the car; Eric's the guy with the girls; and Dennis and Pete own motorcycles. George and John are the bad boys while Pat is the only one in the class who likes Vancouver more than Victoria.

Division 13. Under the leadership of class president Willie Wong, Mr. Murphy's all-boy tech. class has fared well through the grade eleven term, despite the lack of the feminine touch. Div. 13's sports enthusiasts are Jim Galbraith, Willie Wong, Ken Roskelly and Andy Meija, while Gary Howard, Bruce Atkinson, Ron House, Gerald Quan and Mike Swannell take part in musical functions of the school. The class has distinguished itself in two ways: by both its "tech. boy" status and, also, by its second place position in the Red Cross drive. With many ups and few downs this class has enjoyed this year and is looking forward to enjoying next year at Vic. High.

Division 14. Under the capable guidance of Miss Tervo this all-girls class is well supplied with school spirit. Energetic Betty leads the cheering while pretty majorettes Lois and Pat entertain the crowds. Wendy, Brenda, and Nan put their enthusiasm into sports and Marlene, Myrna, Judy, Gloria, both Barbaras, and Vanessa support Miss Douglas and the choir. Leslie is our lone contribution to the band but makes up for it with quality. President Judy Hirst is aided by Leslie Drysdale and Vivian Dopson as secretary. A few of our fairer members, namely Erica, Rosemary, Marilyn, Joanne and Diana have interests outside school.

Division 15. Div. 15, a tech. crew with Mr. Runer as its manager and Ken Allen as its foreman, is a mixture of T.V. stars, lovers, and, of course, plain "tech. boys".

Alec Kudra and Ken Jay are the T.V. stars while Del Balch and Gary Bosence are the Romeos. Would-be electronic brains are Dave Angus and Alex Hay while blossoming carpenters and machinists are Frank Coburn, Bill Davey and Doug Coppin. The "pit" crew is made up of Tom Hall and Barry Baker.

Division 16. Mr. Stark's technical division, headed by council rep. Ron Steele, has had an active year. Our sports minded member Bruce Simpson made a good showing at cross country while Keith Louie excelled at chess. Dance Band member Ray Vestrup played the guitar while choir member Don Rosenburg vocalised. Lots of laughs were provided by our pet joker Syd Watson.

Division 17. An all-girl division is Div. 17 which keeps Mr. Glover quite busy. To help keep order are Vivian Thomas, president, and Joyce Waterman, vice-president. Brains, music and laughter are abundant in this class. Joan George, Joan Edgelow, and Carol Bigmore are the brains; Marlene Mellings and Pat Higgins are the comediennes, and Pat Perry holds the music standard up. Before school in the morning can be seen the faces of Marilyn Simms, Marlene Smith, and Pat Simson, at the windows. Dorcas Bridges, Rosalee Dong, Marlene Herbert and Dolores White are the more quiet females of this group. Deanna Moore, the latest addition from Winnipeg, agrees that the girls have had a good year with Mr. Glover.

Division 18. Led by Mr. Trotter, this all-girl class has had an unforgettable year. Laughter was supplied by light-hearted Iris Calder, our class rep., and Faith Zalischuck represented the band. Darlaine Nute could often be found busy with Y-Teen activities while Valerie Waters, class vice-president, was usually seen trying to do last-minute homework. Every class has its brains who, in our case, were Verna Quan and Edith Hitchen. "Better late than never" could well be the motto of Lois Hunniford and Shirley Lindsay. Quieter (?) members of our division were Leona Newberry and Dorothy MacDonald.

Division 19.

Mr. Bloomfield, our home-room guard,
With a sense of humor, is quite the card.
He teaches us English all through the ages,
And his favorite pastime is giving out pages.
Darlene Irwin, our president gangster,
Is loads of fun and really a prankster.
Sharon Day, who is quite smart in school,
Always giggles and laughs as a rule.
Nancy Mann is our lover-girl inmate,
Are you going to ask her for a date?
Judy Lundblad's a bookworm and clever, too,
Ideas come to her from out of the blue.
Tannis Nicholl, our little spit-fire,
Is always moving, never seems to tire.
Rosie Matthews always seems late,
Could the reason be another school-mate?
Barb Collington, our dusty-haired lass,
Is a quiet member of our class.
Sharon Lundquist is an athlete indeed,
And around the track she goes with speed.
We're not large in number as you can well see,
But who cares about that? We've got quality.

Division 20. Led by our photogenic class president, Skip McBratney, who is assisted by Mr. G. Andrews, Div. 20's T.V. show has had a good year. Bill Wilson, vice-president, and Bill Buxton help with the production, while our writer Wally Young frantically turns out scripts for the acting group, consisting of Larry Ballard, Linda Burns, Cathy Macdonald, and Dave Wright. Our musical staff includes Bill MacAdams, Sargit Dillon, and Len O'kell. Marilyn Pattison, Rinda Anderson, and Barry Stovel take care of camera appearances of the film stars. Technicians are Ken Wong, Alvin Koller, Edwin Watts, and Tom McGaw. As our doorman, Dave Berry, sadly closes the door on the empty room.

Division 21. Heading Div. 21 is our class president Randall Smith who is assisted by vice-president Pat Paterson and secretary Sylvia Firth. The "two-in-every-crowd" characters of our div. are Mark Scott and Blake

Melner who frequently visit their teachers at odd hours.

Renee Clark is noted for her flashing eyes and our sports fan Frank Chambers is usually on the receiving end of them. Julie Shannon has an unusual interest in Fords while Bruce Warburton likes swimming. Wrigley is the man with the money but each nickel that doesn't go for gum goes to the Red Cross with the help of our home-room teacher, Miss MacQueen.

GRADE TEN . . .

Division 22. Class president, Pat Service, needs all the help she can get from her vice-president, Dave Smith, to run our class meetings with jokester, Dave Sheldrick in the class. Secretary, Linda Roylance, assists the other class officers in trying to out-argue Penny Tisdale, who forms the opposition party in our student government.

Back-benchers, Bud Taylor and Bill Gower usually talk about sports during the meetings, while Doreen Rogers and Linda Roylance discuss a subject that is intelligent, in sound at least.

Division 23

Poor Mr. Goulson, alas, alas,
Has to put up with such a class;
Headed by Hayton, helped by O'Reilly,
How can we help but be so lively.

The fun we've had won't be forgotten
Thanks to folks like Doe McNaughton,
And to others, too, the credit is due
Like Maggy and Gail and the rest of you.

Our Div. has a sewing circle as well,
With members like Brent, Leslie, Ron Bell;
Then there's Sharon, the girl with the smile,
And Joan, who giggles just once in a while.

Our Div. is "in there" all the way
As we'll show you all, one fine day.
Our Div.'s got them all, some cute, some slick;
If I could do it again, it's the div. I'd pick.

Division 24. Residing in room 306 under the watchful eye of Miss van Engel, aided by class president Doug Dickie, Div. 24 has a wide array of talent. Norman Brooks, Diana Joe, Jack Lacy and James Robertson are the masters of the art, while Terry Marlow and Valerie Wong hold up the scholastic end of the class. Sports enthusiasts are Joan Venus, Anne Scowen, Norma Shaw, Raymond Sam, but there are always Wayne Knowles, Jamie Robertson and Roger Hopwood to keep the class laughing.

Division 25. Down in the biology lab. you can hear Div. 25 waking up the corpses and skeletons under the watchful eye of Mr. Charters. Leading this colourful div. is class rep. and pres., Lou Fletcher, with vice-president, Lynne Speller, and secretary, Val Broadley. Waving the band colours is Roy Stevens while our gold and black is flashed around by sport stars, Brian Grey, Dick Coates, Lou Fletcher, and Marlene Craig. Our grey matter is supplied by Ann Chew, Flo Chan, Troy Lassau, and Pat Skibo. Rolling those black and brown balls down the alley seems to be a favourite pastime for enthusiastic bowler John Woloschuk. Finally, bringing up the rear, is "better late than never" Rick Little.

Division 26. Space ship commandant Mr. Loomer has guided his crew of space cadets through an active cruise, assisted by pilot Pauline Smith, co-pilot Sheila Hanchard and communications expert Anne Sulsbury and the crew have never had a dull moment.

Sports enthusiasts on the crew are Sharon Sinclair and Judy Veitch, while the musically inclined are Carol Davies, and Margaret Lendrum. Dianne Boulchard was the only dancer in the Div. and Gwen Huntley is the brain.

The ship was also crowded with a fair share of nonense makers in the persons of Wendie Lockie, Wendie Mowat and Donna Tanning.

Division 27. Captain McLagan has very little trouble with the girls on this merchant ship since there aren't any. The other Officers Dave Dawson and Jeff Eng help the captain with his administrative problems while the navigators Tony Hopkins, Don Kissinger, Ray Lang, and Fred Comer lend a helping hand in keeping order.

John Dobrocky, Jim Hawthorne, and Charlie Brown are usually seen playing in the ship's band for an appreciative audience composed of Bob Anderson, Phillip Hill, Peter Brice, and Gary Brown, the on-board clowns, and Dave Carl, Don Hosal, Ron Empey, Grant Chan, and Larry Cross.

Athletic crew members include Robin Barnes, Frank Chambers, Mike Corry, and Dick Show, while Dennis Ableson, Warren Gill, Dick Gillies, Jack Gordon, John Bernard, and Harry Doug swab the deck. Dan Ford is in the brig for arriving late.

Division 28. Mr. Smyth's all-boys Vocational Technical Class has adapted itself well and wisely to the ways of Victoria High School. The class has made a strong dent in the field of sports with such players as Tom Wyatt, Jim Peters, Darrell Lorimer, and Barry Saddler making a favourable showing. There are eight members of the class in the band and their attendance at practices depends upon where the band is going in the future. Mr. Smyth does an admirable job of preserving the peace when the class has is last bit of fun before "indulging in the quest for knowledge".

Division 29. The Div. 29 ocean liner is run by an interesting group of people. Fleet admiral, Mr. Paone is at the head giving advice to the ship's captain, Ted Broadwell. Vice-president, Ron Barrieau acts as first lieutenant in the direction of the ship.

Head navigator of the class is the smart one, Fred Jones. Les Brice and Tom Collett can usually be seen playing sports on deck while Frank Ewer and Jack Fitzgerald, two jokers, provide the entertainment in the lounge.

This tech division harbours at pier 210 and has had an unforgettable mooring so far this year.

Division 30. An all-male class, Div. 30 is headed by Mr. Long. President of the class is Mike Malerby with Bob Flynn as his vice-president and the secretarial job is held by Wilbert Kay. Much variety is to be had in Div. 30. Bill Watson, Jim Hess, Henry Holocoff hold up the athletic side of the room, while the musicians are Ken Houston and Mike Malerby. The jokes of the class are left to Jim Gallagher and the academic standing is kept up by Paul Goodman and Brian Huddleston.

Division 31. Division 31's luxury yacht is managed by boys under Mr. Hansen's supervision and can usually be found tied up in room 409. Dan McPherson and Ron Mitchell assisted by Jim Lusse and George Mitcham can usually be found pacing off the deck to see how long it is while our joksters Gordon Morton, Hugh McClelland, Don Nuels, Guy Price, Jim Morris, Stu Pitt and Bob Stofer keep making the boat longer so they get a different number each time.

Ron Pederson, Doug Philip, and Ron Page wait patiently while the "thinkers," Mike Pepler and Larry Lomax, plot the course for our fair craft as it sails into the future.

Division 32. Mr. Clark, Division 32's registration teacher, helps president Clint Williams and class secretary Mike Renaud with their governing problems which arise frequently in an all-boys class. Clint Williams, Brent Siddon, Art Slater and Gil Sadler sing in the Glee Club to a beat set by Johnny Walker and Loran Wright as they bang around in mechanics. Henry Stefanek represents Div. 32 on the soccer field.

Division 33. Charles Lorenzen is this div.'s most unique member. He is a he, while every other commercial students is a fetching female, two cute examples being Fran Randall and Eleanor Campbell. A little more originality is added by our pantomiming twins, Fran and Freida Pearman. Gay girls Shirley Smith and Arlene Larkin are capably controlled by Fran Lee, our likeable president. We have one band member, Violet Brayshaw and we can't forget our "Three Musketeers," Gerry Lam, Carol Hayward and Lorelai Williams.

Division 34. This swinging division has loyal supporters of everyone from Elvis Presley to Perry Como. Barbara Grant and Elois Halmburg stand up for Elvis, Janice Brown is loyal to Perry, and Ann Bloomfield is sticking with Tommy Sands. Connie Donaldson represents Div. 34 in many sports while Anna Belfour and Virginia Love take part in the square dance club. Sharon Leask is an active member of the Red Cross and Connie Van Wart participates in the school choir. Dixie Lee, Joes Josephine Ward and Nora Fenswich keep up the scholastic standing of the class. The glamour girl is Sonja Cambrey and Sandra Bloomfield is listed as Div. 34's "real blonde". Some of Div. 34's fair ladies take an active interest in such things as motorcycles, drums, and Plymouths.

Division 35. This all-girl, homemakers-of-the-future div. registers with Mrs. Donaldson. President, Jackie Reeve and class secretary, Joyce Watkins are helped through class meetings by Barbara McCormick, our vice-president.

To the music of Pat Townsend, our only band member and the swinging voice of the choir singer Ginny McKay, our fashion models, Gail Johnson, Darlene Praud, and Kathy Jubb keep us informed of the latest in styles.

Better-late-than-never Ozzie Knezacky was finally on time when she saw Joy Hurst and Lorraine Stovel on the "T.V. House Party".

Division 36. Just because div. 36 is the last division in the school don't under-rate us. We have our share of smart ones, dumb ones, early ones and late ones. Our crazy little palace is lead by President Stew Macauley and his right-hand man, Arnie Brick, vice-president. Karen Glover handles the secretarial end of duties and does all the writing. We have sports reps in Monty Vanden and Edna Wilson. Charlie Luxton is our Red Cross representative while Ken Beswick plays in the band. We may not be in the front row, but we're in the back plugging for Vic. High.

Y-Teens

Listed under the heading of "work" this year Victoria High Y-Teens have done such activities as making and seiling candy, do-nut and hot dogs at basketball games and Squares Sales.

Among those activities listed under "fun" have been "hilarious" house parties, ushering at school functions, wearing signs advertising the band concert, and the Provincial Mid-Winter Conference held in Victoria this year. Also the Y-Teen and Hi-Y dance on April 12 after those "brain-washing" exams.

Our biggest and most enterprising activity was the adoption of an orphan from Malta. In the Easter holidays the Y-Teens hope to spend a week at the Y.M.C.A. Sunshine Camp at Sooke.

The president is Georgina Pethard.

The Dance Band

Thumping through the corridors,
Comes the real hot beat,
Of the Vic. High Dance Band,
Kids jump to their feet;
Though they're in their first year,
Things are going well
With two short practises a week
The music's really swell.
When you're feeling very blue,
And in a weary trance,
Listen to Vic. High's Dance Band,
Get up, let's go and dance!

Beta Hi-Y

Led by president Ted Walton and vice-president Bob Brown, Beta Hi-Y has had a successful year. Through the sale of booster buttons, hero badges, and pop and potato chips at basketball games, we have managed to stabilize our financial condition.

Vic. High's junior basketball team was outfitted with shorts by Beta and money was donated to the World Service Fund of the Y.M.C.A.

Treasurer Jim Lee, secretary Harold Ridgway, and padre Blair McLean completed this year's executive.

Alpha Hi-Y

Under the supervision of sponsor Don Smyth, Alpha has completed a successful year. The club, which holds its meetings every other week at the homes of the members, has raised money by selling pop at basketball games and dances, holding an evening dance, and making boosters and programmes for school games. This money was donated to pay the balance on the time-clock in the new gym. President Allan Hayton was ably assisted by vice-president Art Affleck, secretary Phil MacNeill, and treasurer Don Kirkby. All members combined to make this a very prosperous year for Alpha.

Classroom Choir

As well as being the backbone of the large choir which has performed on numerous occasions during the year, the classroom choir took the leading parts in Mozart's opera, "Barbarina," at the Winter Fantasy.

With the help of accompanists Florence Chan and Mr. Pluym this choir has had a successful year and has entered four classes in the Music Festival.

Great credit is due to Miss Norma Douglas, who has given up a lot of her free time to help the group.

The Band

This year has seen the largest and one of the best bands in the history of V.H.S. Under conductor R. Grant, president Ralph Turner, and secretary Sharon Jay, the band had a very successful year. Among its appearances were a concert on March 6, the Greater Victoria Music Festival, and the 4th annual B.C. Band Conference. The band also played regularly to the student body in auditorium period.

Camosunet

With Penny Druce and Janie Hardie wielding the whip from the co-editors' slot, this year's Journalism class pooled their talents to put to press several varied editions of the Camosunet.

While news stories and features attracted considerable comment, the "old standard" columns once again proved their lasting popularity. Scene in Passing flowed from the pen of social editor Pearl Raels, while Blushes and Rushes, usually a joint endeavour, brought to light many mysterious romances. Barb Palmer produced the Class Presidents' column, while Penny and Janie interviewed personalities around the school for their stories on the girl and boy of the month.

On the more muscular side of school life, sports editors Ian Smith and Jacquee Wright kept the current heroes in the limelight as they covered all competitive activities.

And no resume of this year's work would be complete without a mention of our expert on international affairs, Bruce Pollard, whose vitriolic pen kept the teaching staff in stitches.

And finally, as usual, Div. 7's commercial girls kept the Camosunet off the rocks and in circulation as they solicited the ever-necessary advertisements.

Calamity Players

Headed by President Louise Touchings and backed by an executive consisting of Ingrid Escher, Pat Cromie, Peggy Standen and Ed Pomeroy, the club staged four skits humourously promoting school activities. The skits were all satires on well-known themes. The supreme ambition of club members is now to produce a script with an original theme.

Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross, under the guidance of Miss van Engel and Donna Robertson, president, has undoubtedly achieved success. During the 1956-1957 term the club has sponsored a hanger drive, corsage sale and coat check, and a talent show. The proceeds from these activities have gone towards entertainment and gifts for senior citizens, health kits, toys for retared children of Victoria, and the adoption of the Chinese Hospital. Members of the club have also worked at the D.V.A. The various committee directors are: Telephone, Charlie Luxton; Sunshine and Correspondence, Vanessa Wright; Refreshment, Gail Prette; Entertainment, Donna McLeod; and Poster, Mary Andrews and Dorothy Tonning. Club secretary and vice-president is Gail Prette.

Senior French Club

Although membership is smaller than usual the Senior French Club has had a very successful year. A few meetings were held at members' homes where we sang, and put on French skits. Regular school meetings were held at noon hours to complete the regular activities, and a party was held at Christmas to provide social entertainment.

An excellent turnout of French 91 students was notable and points to a firm foundation for next year's club.

Junior French Club

Under the guidance of Miss Macqueen and Miss van Engel, the Junior French Club got off to a good start this year. For the past eight months, about twenty members have been meeting in room 302 every other Friday noon. The executive: Grace Morris, secretary; Mary Pittendreigh, vice-president; and Hannah Okland, president. On the entertainment committee: Ed Lee and Kara Lou O'Brien. Members have participated in various skits and games for which prizes were offered. Miss Macqueen has provided us with many interesting French records, and we have learned a few French songs, including "Là-Haut dans les Montagnes," and "Sur le pont d'Avignon".

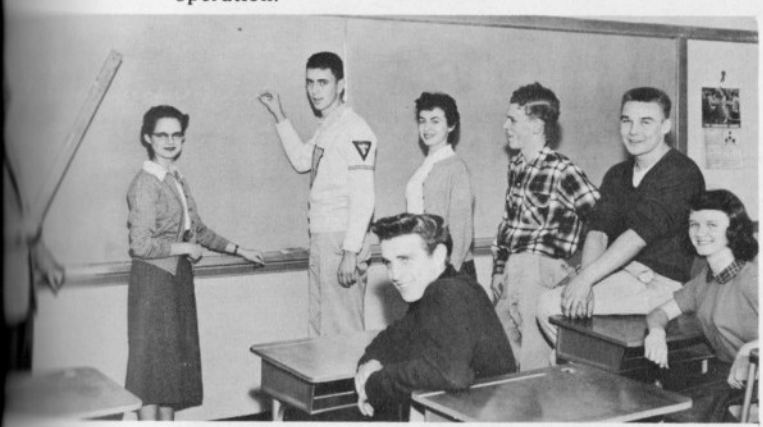
Future Nurses' Club

The Future Nurses' Club, newly formed this year, was composed of thirty-six enthusiastic members.

Executive members were: president, Jean McLeod; vice-president, Helen Cornelius; and secretary, Dorothy Tonning. The sponsor was Miss Roberts, while nurse advisers were Miss Henly, school nurse, and Mrs. MacLaren, public health nurse.

The club heard many interesting speakers covering different phases of the nursing field and the qualifications required.

Earlier in the year, members visited St. Joseph's and Royal Jubilee Hospitals and witnessed a staged operation.



The Biology Club

Visits to the Provincial Museum, the Northwest and Forest Biological Laboratories, and several field trips have been the highlights of a very successful first year for the Biology Club. Under the capable guidance of Mr. Charters, and the excellent leadership of President Howard Lim and Vice-President Martin Bergbusch, the club has enjoyed many interesting and exciting hours together.

Future Teachers' Club

This club, one of the largest in the school, is headed by president Phillip McNeil, vice-president Al Hayton, and secretary Pat Scurrah. During the year the members made a visit to the elementary and junior high schools where they learned many interesting things concerning the art of teaching. Many guest speakers were heard, including Mr. Neil Swainson of Victoria College, Mr. T. Curtis of Willows School, and several former students who are now in the teaching profession. Without the encouragement and guidance of the sponsors, Miss B. Sutton and Mr. D. Smith, the club could not have been the great success it was.

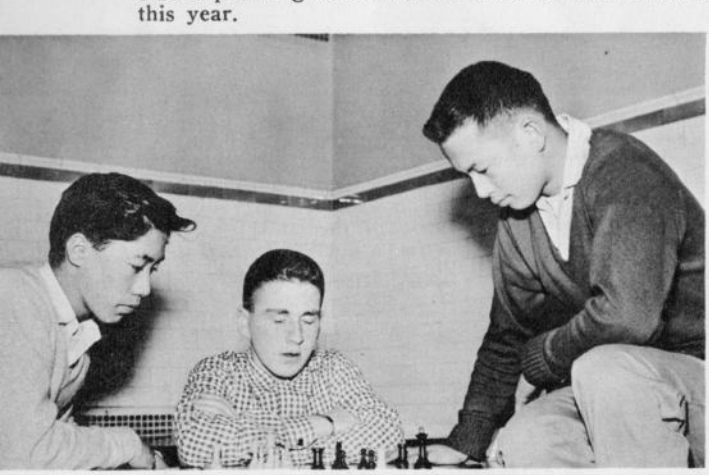
Square Dance Club

The Square Dance Club in its second successful year under the sponsorship of Mr. Wallis, Miss Sutton, Mr. Trotter and Mr. Chatfield, had a total of 170 members, composed of all grades. Meetings were held twice a week, Tuesdays and Thursdays at noon, in the new gym. President was Carole Slater, vice-president, Al Hayton, and secretary, Eva Nipp. The club is planning to enter two sets in the dance festival this year.

Student Librarians

With the addition of 400 books to the library since September, these girls have been kept busy preparing new books for the shelves, checking books in and out, sending out overdue notices, and collecting fines. They have given much of their time before school, after school, and at noon hours.



Chess Club

Nearly fifty students who like to bury themselves in contemplation and roam around those dark halls of thought have formed this year's chess club. Mr. Goulson is the master-mind of the club in his first year at the school.

Members go daily at noon hours to wring their brains like sponges in search of a safe move.

Peter Roche is the elected president and he is assisted by Jefferey Ing, vice-president, and Ernie Quan, secretary-treasurer.

During the year, the club plays on a competitive basis within itself and when an inter-school tournament takes place, the top eight players take part in it. This year Vic. High has won the Baines-Lewis Trophy, emblematic of the city high school championship.

United Nations Club

Organization of the United Nations Club this year proved very successful. A large membership of interested students coupled with numerous activities made this year one to be remembered by the club.

Foremost on the list of activities undertaken was the sending of two delegates to U.B.C. to take part in discussions of U.N. Service. Following that were three debate sessions, the topics of which were: the Suez Crisis, Hungarian Revolt, and World Disarmament.

As well as an entertainment evening at Oak Bay High, the club enjoyed a successful dance just after Christmas. These constituted the social get-togethers of the year.

Last of all, but perhaps the most important, was the entertaining of delegates from all Vancouver Island in forming a United Nations Model General Assembly. At the meeting at Central Jr. High School, each of the visitors represented a U.N. country. Vic. High's Paul Williamson and Lawrence Valiant represented Italy and Martin Bergbusch and Howard Lim represented the U.S.

Blue

In a picture of splendour the day begins,
In the blue hills far away;
And the bluebird signs out, "Spring has come again,"
With his songs so bright and gay;
The river is rushing to meet the sea
Where the blue will never end;
And the heavens above give the blue of day—
And all of the blue shades blend.

—Bryan Ralph, Division 28.

Green

The sun on the surface sends the colours in flight,
Down comes the green—the dark and the light.
The skates on the bottom, the sharks at the side
Send green fish a'swimming for some place to hide.
The green rays of light, where the shadows had been,
Turn the forest of kelp to a forest of green.
The water, the coral, the weed, and the sand,
Are all green, below, in this undersea land.

The Trials and Travels of Timothy Techshop

Timothy Techshop is a fly,
Through the Tech. halls he does roam,
To the trials and travels of this little bug,
We dedicate this poem.

Timothy moves about the shops,
Buzzing his heart's delight,
Amongst the hammers and tongs he flies,
In his never-ending flight.

From a rafter in the Woodwork Shop,
He eyes the construction crew,
He watches them a hundred times,
With his exclusive fly's eye view.

In the Automotive Shop,
Going round and round,
He sits upon a crankshaft,
While this marvel is being ground.

While touring the Electric Shop,
With curses he is met,
As he worms his way around the tubes,
Of a television set.

In the old Sheet Metal Shop,
He almost loses life,
As he pauses on the edge,
Of a metal-cutting knife.

In the Draughting Room he comes acrop,
As he rests awhile on a table top,
A thrown eraser comes too close,
And almost squashes poor Tim's nose.

To the Metal Work Shop he travels next,
Where the reaction is a grimace,
As he falls upon his victim,
And crawls across its face.

School is over for the day,
The corridors are silent,
Here comes Harry the janitor,
Spraying his bug repellent.

The flags all fly at halfmast,
The Tech. boy bows his head,
The reason for sadness is well known,
Poor TIMOTHY is dead.

Tom Wyatt—A good two-hander from any angle. Lots of speed and hustle make this guard a valuable man to have around.

CROSS COUNTRY COMPLETES HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN

This year's squad of cross country runners certainly blazed a long trail of starry victories. Training consistently three times a week regardless of weather conditions, Mr. Hartley coached the team to eleven victories out of twelve races—an envious record in any league. By far the most spectacular event of the year was the B.C. High School Championships held here and won by Vic High for the third straight year, which earned them the CHEK-TV Trophy. Led by Captain Ian Fraser, Vice-Captain Lawrence Valiant, Ed Pomeroy, Peter Jubb and ten others, they also took the Vancouver Island, Canadian Legion and several others, including two Mainland trips, featuring a close loss to University of Idaho in the Pacific Northwest Championships.

This year's Rugger team, under the supervision of automotive teacher-sponsor, Mr. J. B. Hill, fared well through the 1956-57 season. Playing several games against various other schools, the team made a fine show in all games. Many of the team's members used the Tech Rugger team as a practice field for the Vic High Rugger team and gave fine performances with both teams. Mr. Hill says that next year they will again be a strong team and is looking forward to another successful season.

REP GRASS HOCKEY

Playing in the Inter-High League and the Bridgeman Cup the girls did well this year. Poor weather hindered league play so that the schedule was cut in half. In the Bridgeman Cup play, the girls, short two players, nevertheless lost only one game. They were defeated by Queen Margaret's School of Duncan, who placed first. This gave Vic. High third place in a field of eight teams. Players were:

Jean McLeod—Our driving Centre, Jean scored many goals for Vic. High.

Jacquee Wright—Right Inner and Manager, the fastest player on the team.

Nancy Allan—Right Wing, who scored many times with a sizzling corner shot .

Jean Smith—Jean was always the best stick-handler on the field, Left Wing.

Sharon Armstrong—Steady Left Half-Back, Sharon has a good hard shot.

Barbara Mann—Right Half-Back, also proficient at that hard shot so necessary for a half-back.

Noreen Galbraith—Left Full-Back, stopped the opposing team time and time again.

Barrie Hanslip—This Right Full-Back could send the ball with one lusty hit half-way down the field.

Marilyn Braun—Speedy little Full-Back.

Ranjit Johl—Randy played well every position on the team.

Terry Graham—Our Goalie, who was very difficult to beat.

Mrs. Shulz — Our Coach, who instilled her enormous team spirit into every player.

Sheila Clark—Our firey Captain, who could back up any player and bring the ball up the field to set up most of our goals, gave us a great deal of inspiration and encouragement.

Special thanks should be given to Charney Manhas, who made an excellent job of playing Goalie for us during the Bridgeman Cup.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Playing some Friday night preliminaries besides the regular league games, the Senior Girls' Basketball team had a profitable and enjoyable year. Although the girls showed a lot of fight throughout the season they did not live up to their early promise. The members of this year's team were:

Julie Beecroft—A high scorer with an accurate hook shot. Sharon Sinclair—"Sinkie" is an excellent playmaker and should be the backbone of the team next year. Rose Matthews—A speedy little Forward with a lovely long one-hander. Sharon Armstrong—Her second year on the squad, Sharon is a strong defensive Forward. Avis Murrant—Another player who excels on defense, Avis is a steady Guard. Sharon Day—Forward with a sizzling long shot who should be a high scorer next year. Nan Bennett—Most consistant rebounder on the team. Nan plays either Centre or Forward. Pat Sutherland—Tall Forward who should be greatly improved next year. Sheila Clark—Starry Guard and Captain, Sheila has played her usual best and has provided the team with spirit and "get up and go." Maryette Mar—Maryette proved invaluable to the team as a high scoring Forward. Connie Donaldson—The fastest player on the floor, Connie caused the opposing team a lot of trouble. Kay Rae—A good floor player, Kay ate all the oranges. Mrs. Schulz—Our considerate Coach, who instilled the whole team with her driving spirit.

REP SWIM TEAM

Vic High's Rep Swim Team, under the combined directorship of Mr. D. Smyth and Mrs. Buchan finished second to Oak Bay in the Annual Inter-High Swim Gala; but members and spectators all agreed that they made an excellent showing.

Later in the year Mrs. Buchan sponsored the fifteen-member Girls' Swim Club. Assisting in the capacity of coach was Chris Scowen (the lucky fella!).

Wavery

Sylvan ships swinging through the silver sea's swirl,
Breaking past the breakers that will tip black crags with pearl;
White sheets bending 'fore the foam-flecked spray
As the sun leaps up from darkness and comes crashing with the day.

Noontime with its deadening calm comes ambling o'er the mast,
With drowsy hum of laziness, and seagulls floating past;
And flies that drone in comfort, and drooping, looping sail,
And canvas flopping listlessly against a heat-edged rail.

And midday passes mourning, and the sun slips down the sky,
And night is coming closer, coming closer with its cry,
And the world is waking, waking, as the star-time's drawing nigh.

Fighting forth fiercely, moonbeam hewn,
Bright waves dancing, starlight strewn;
Great gods grovelling, dust-down in the street,
Lay their blackened embers cross His shimmering silver feet.

Intellect

The lonely pine—
Twisted, gnarled, and bent,
Broken before the howling wind;
Beaten and torn—
Yet possessing still
Some vestige of mightiness.

The swallow—
God's green messenger,
Wheeling high in airy abandon,
Fluttering forever—
A living symbol
Of joy and radiance.

The plodding oxen—
Dull, slow,
Unknowing and uncaring,
Doing their work without thought—
Yet, in their animal way
Are satisfied.

And man—
Ruler of all,
Wealthiest of all,
And greatest of all—
Is saddest of all.
